Celebrate Diversity

Senior Lucas Gonzales has been selected as a 2009-10 National Hispanic Recognition Program (NHRP) Scholar. This year, the NHRP is recognizing nearly 5,000 students from a pool of more than 200,000 who took the 2008 PSAT/NMSQT/PAA and identified themselves as Hispanic/Latino. Students with GPAs of 3.5 or higher are designated as scholars qualified for the program from the 260 who applied last November. To qualify for the residency program, students spend six months studying a NASA-designed, distance learning curriculum via the Internet. Based on their academic performance on the lessons, they were selected to attend the summer program.

Squalicum Students Graduate from State Program

Loren Bates and Justin VonFeldt recently graduated from the Washington Aerospace Scholars (WAS) Summer Residency program at the Museum of Flight in Seattle. WAS is a competitive educational program for high school juniors across the state, designed to inspire students to pursue degrees and careers in areas such as science, technology, engineering and math. Bates and VonFeldt were among only 150 students who
